FMASU'S "A MERRY MOVIE CHRISTMAS" RETURNS

Creating A Springboard for Local Filmmakers and Raising Awareness for "Root For Kids"

The 501(C)(3) nonprofit Film and Media Alliance of Southern Utah (FMASU) returns with "A Merry Movie Christmas," a film-centric holiday-inspired event for all ages created as both a springboard for local filmmaking talent and as a fundraiser for important local causes. This year, half of the proceeds from "A Merry Movie Christmas" will go to Root For Kids, a vital nonprofit designed to help families create a nurturing environment for optimal growth and aid in children's early development. Since 1993, Root For Kids (previously known as The Learning Center) has served as a beacon of hope as they've lent a helping hand to over 16,000 families.

FMASU and "A Merry Movie Christmas" promise a magical afternoon of cinematic entertainment for attendees in honor of Root For Kids and our vibrant community of storytellers. The proceedings will start with the 10th anniversary of "The Holiday Edition of the Guerilla Shorts Showcase." Participating filmmakers were given a Christmas themed topic and a limited amount of time to put together a short film (7 minutes in length) using any available resources.

Seventeen filmmaking teams signed up for this yuletide quick turnaround challenge, but the number of completed films hadn't yet been determined at press time. That said, during "A Merry Movie Christmas," attendees will have the rare opportunity to experience these completed cinematic holiday creations alongside the creative and dedicated storytellers that put them together. Additionally, attendees will have a hand in picking the best of the best as there will be prizes awarded to the three strongest short films of the bunch.

"A Merry Movie Christmas" will take place on Saturday, December 19th, at the historic Electric Theater. Doors will open at 1:30 PM with "The Holiday Edition of the Guerilla Shorts Showcase" beginning at 2 PM. In addition to this impressive collection of holiday-appropriate short films, attendees can also expect a delicious meal, a special visit from a socially distanced Santa Claus (yes, there will be photo ops), and a handful of wonderfully festive surprises. Tickets are only $15. Discounted tickets are available for seniors ($10), students (with ID), and children under 11 ($5). For more ticket info and event updates, visit fmasu.com.

As a bonus, immediately following "A Merry Movie Christmas" charity event, FMASU will present a special free screening of "The Muppet Christmas Carol." This wonderful spin on the timeless Charles Dickens classic features your favorite muppets in holiday action as well as a masterful performance by the legendary Michael Caine as Scrooge. "The Muppet Christmas Carol" is expected to start at 6 PM.

On a final note, FMASU is well aware that we are all living in extraordinary times. As such, all safety precautions will be taken at this event. Included; Limited seating, social distancing, sanitizing stations, and masks.

THE STORY OF STEEL MAGNOLIAS IS RICH IN WHAT MATTERS MOST!

In Steel Magnolias, Friendship, Laughter, and Love can be found through any type of weather, life experiences, pandemics, politics, social, ills, or religious beliefs. RELATIONSHIPS are the most precious of all gifts in this poignant and hilarious play by Robert Harling—perfect timing for the holiday season.

Back by popular demand for a limited engagement this December, warm your bones in the Lorraine Boccardo Theater at the Center For the Arts at Kayenta. Safety measures are securely in place. Masks, temperature checks, sanitization stations will all keep you feeling safe and sound as you enter Truvy's beauty salon, where all the ladies who are anybody in Chinquapin, Louisiana, come to have their hair done and swap gossip.

Helped by her eager new assistant, Annelle (who is not sure whether or not she is still married, Anne Schwab), the outspoken, wise-cracking Truvy (Barbie Christensen), dispenses shampoos and free advice to the town's wealthy curmudgeon, Ouiser ("I'm not crazy, I've just been in a bad mood for forty years" Jane Williams); an eccentric millionaire, Miss Clairee (the past mayors' wife with a raging sweet tooth, Chrystine P. Hyatt); and the local social leader, M'Lynn (Jan Broberg), whose daughter, Shelby (the prettiest girl in town, Angie Nayolor), is about to marry a "good ole boy."

Filled with hilarious repartee and not just a few acerbic but humorously revealing verbal collisions, the play draws on the underlying strength—and love—of womanhood, which makes its characters genuinely touching, funny, and marvelously amiable company in good times and bad. This is an all-star cast who are excited to be working professionally together again after successfully producing this play at CFAK in 2018!

The play met with immediate critical and widespread acceptance in its premier production by New York's WPA Theatre. Concerned with a group of gossipy southern ladies in a small-town beauty parlor, the play is alternately hilarious and touching—and, in the end, it powerfully reveals the strength and purposefulness which underlies the antic banter of its characters. "Harling has given his women sharp, funny dialogue... The play builds to a conclusion that is deeply moving." —NY Daily News. "...a skillfully crafted, lovingly evoked picture of eccentricity in the small-town South..." —Drama-Logue. "...suffused with humor and tinged with tragedy." —NY Post.

December 11th also brings a great Holiday Concert with Drew & Lacey!

They spent the last ten years immersed in the Nashville music scene. The couple spent time on music row recording, writing, and collaborating with top musicians, but Drew & Lacey truly shine when they are on stage. Their stage presence is dynamic and magnetic. This magnetism allowed them to sell out the RutledgeWest in downtown Nashville for six years in a row. Since moving to southern Utah, Drew became the principal at Tuacahn High School for the Performing Arts, and the duo has continued to play music. They were resident musicians at the OC Tanner Amphitheater in Zion, Utah, for the summer of 2016, and have opened for Jay Leno and the Steep Canyon Rangers at Tuacahn Amphitheater. Drew & Lacey's latest album, Most Likely, was produced by Scott Wiley at June Audio in Provo and is available on all music platforms.

On December 12th, don't miss the UN-Holiday concert with Stone Company, Lisa MacFarlane, and Rebecca Gent. It will have nothing to do with Christmas. We promise!

Stone Company is a "Potato Music" trio featuring multi-instrumentalists Jon Stone, Byron Owens, and Josh Baird. They play an upbeat blend of Euro-American roots music with a groovy twist. Stone Company is headquartered in Southern Utah. Born in Texas, educated in Kentucky, and refined in Louisiana, Jonathan Stone is a multi-instrumentalist musician and vocalist who has played music in almost every state in the US and the leader of Stone Company. Read more about them at stonecompany.weebly.com. They will be playing at 7:45 PM on the 12th.

Lisa MacFarlane found an artistic home in Las Vegas as an adult to perform and connect with blues music lovers, music students, and fellow creatives to craft her first album, Picnic (out everywhere). Picnic tells the story of leaving an abusive relationship and learning to love healthily and respectfully in the aftermath. See her at 7:20 PM on the 12th.

Rebecca Gent (7 PM) is a young singer/songwriter, but her music speaks words beyond her age. She works with specific and straightforward aspects of emotion and relates it to many moments in time. She has had the opportunity to work with many professional producers and professional artists. Rebecca has released two original songs, Lonely and Brushed by Familiar, found on all music platforms.

SHIWITS TOY DRIVE NEEDS YOUR HELP!

Jim, Kent, and Bret Sevy are pleased to be helping with the Shiwits Toy Drive once again this year.

Now in Its 20th year, we have been able to do this in conjunction with Glen Rogers and tribal leaders.

Our goal is to have a gift for each child under 18 and then help with food for the party. They also have a wonderful local woman who has knitted scarves and beanies for 100s of the tribal members over the past few years.

This year, despite the obstacles brought on by Covid-19, we hope to do as much as we have in the past or more. Because of our great community, in the last couple of years, we have been able to extend help to 3 other southern Piute groups in our end of the state.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE – THE SHOW MUST GO ON!

While many theatre companies have shut their doors during the pandemic, the SimonFest Theatre Company believes that live-theatre is an essential part of a healthy community. So, follow all COVID19 guidelines, the theatre is moving forward with its Christmas show this year; – It's a Wonderful Life!

"It's a Wonderful Life is the perfect show to help us remember our humanity and our worth," says Founder and Artistic Director Richard Bugg. "It's easy to lose focus on those things when quarantined from one another. This story is one of my personal favorites, and Jimmy Stewart is my favorite actor. I'll have to share the story with you sometime, of how I almost had a private luncheon with Mr. Stewart!" Just ask him after the show.

It's a Wonderful Life is the story of idealistic George Bailey, who feels trapped one Christmas Eve, doubting his worth, and thinks of ending his life. We share his journey of rescue, redemption, and purpose. The script being used is by Joe Landry. It honors both the original short story by Philip Van Doren Stern entitled "The Greatest Gift," and the screenplay of It's a Wonderful Life by Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Jo Swerling, and Frank Capra. The stage presentation is set on Christmas Eve of 1947 in a radio studio, where James Stewart and Donna Reed have been invited to recreate their roles from the film released the previous year. Four other actors take positions behind four microphones to create all the remaining characters from the fictional Bedford Falls.

But since it is staged as a radio show, why not just broadcast it and forego having a live audience? "Because watching these actors create the voices and sound effects is more than half the fun," proclaims Bugg. "Have you ever wished you could have been in the audience for some of the old-time radio broadcasts, and seen Orson Welles, Jack Benny, Gracie Allen, George Burns, Lucille Ball, Hattie McDaniel, or Edger Bergen work their magic in front of the mic?"

"Storytelling is what makes us human," Bugg continues. "We must continue to share our stories as gifts, not battering rams. As a company, we have a healthy respect for the pandemic dangers, but we believe that we must not live by fear but by the desire—the need—the drive to remain a united society. Storytelling may also be the greatest catalyst for the peace that we have. When we share our stories honestly (with the goal of mutual understanding, not rabble-rousing), then we share a cathartic journey with our audience. That catharsis causes empathy; empathy leads to peace. And there is nothing as powerful as sharing that experience in a darkened theater."

It's a Wonderful Life plays December 18th, 19th, and 21st at 7 PM at the Heritage Center Theater at 105 N 100 E in Cedar City. Tickets are available online at www.simonfest.org or by phone at 435-267-0194. The ticketing system automatically distances audience groupings. We are asking audience members to wear masks. Ticket prices are $20 for adults; $15 for veterans; $12 for youth 6-17

WILL 'WHITE POCKET' BE THE NEXT WAVE?

Most desert aficionados are familiar with The Wave and with the story behind how it became famous. In a nutshell, this is the Wave's history as a desert bucket list destination: back in the 1990s, there was no permit system for the Wave – because the Wave was an obscure locals-only spot that not enough people knew about to want to go there. Then, the story goes – a European film crew captured footage of The Wave, and it started to, pardon the pun, make a splash. What really put The Wave on the map, though, was its appearance as a wallpaper in the Windows Operating System in 2009. Today, the Wave is one of the most coveted hikes in the nation with what must be the most competitive recreational permit system out there: almost a quarter-million people a year apply for only 7300 available permits, putting the odds of obtaining a permit at less than 3%.

Only a small percentage of Wave hopefuls know, though, that there is an equally spectacular and much more remote destination a few miles east of the Wave: White Pocket. Just like the Wave back in the 1990s, White Pocket is not covered by a permit system because not enough people know about the destination or have the tools to get there: it's a long and challenging 4-wheel deep-sand approach drive.

Yet White Pocket has already started to make its own waves among outdoor photography circles – no surprise, given its amazing topography and colors. It is a terrific destination for both landscape and astrophotography; given its remote location, the skies' darkness at White Pocket is nothing short of spectacular – and it's a fantastic backcountry spot to car-camp.

Southern Utah and Northern Arizona locals have long known that White Pocket parallels the Wave in wow-factor, photography, and adventure appeal. And at this point, it seems like the world might just be on the cusp of catching on as well: in the fall of 2020, Apple decided to include White Pocket as the sole non-abstract stock wallpaper in iOS 14.2 for iPhones and iPads. With more than 200 million iPhones sold annually and over a billion devices out there that are compatible with iOS 14.2, there are all of a sudden a lot of folks who are now carrying White Pockets in their pockets.

There has already been an uptick in visitation to White Pocket, but fortunately for those who seek solitude, White Pocket is vast, and it is still easy to find peace and quiet out there. We won't speculate for how long it'll stay that way – but we're grateful to have this gem in our backyard, and hope that the difficulty of White Pocket's access roads will keep visitor numbers at a manageable level for a while to come.

See you out there!

About St George Gingerbread House Parade

The St. George Gingerbread House Parade was founded in 2019. The origins date back to 2012 when local business McArthur Jewelers hosted the then Gingerbread House Tour for the historic downtown St George businesses along Main Street. The organizers have switched hands over the years, and in 2019, local resident, Melissa Daams, founded the organization after learning it wasn't going to be organized that year. Her goal is to bring together area businesses, benefit a local non-profit, and create an idyllic family and community Christmas experience. She has opened up the event to all St George area businesses to get involved. Visit www.gingerbreadparade.org for more information and a map of all participants!

MASK UP UTAH, ENDURE TO THE END

By Howard Sierer

This pandemic is wearing on most of us. We're developing coronavirus fatigue, and that can be dangerous.

Young people across the country increasingly are ignoring the social distancing guidelines that weigh heavily on their natural inclinations to socialize and "get on with life." As a result, the average age of those contracting COVID-19 is dropping.

Older people are not exempt even though they often have more control over their interactions with others. With restaurant socializing restricted, older people have compensated with more in-home gatherings. For seniors, the lure of getting together with family, especially with grandchildren, can be compelling.

The upshot: this fall's dramatic upturn in COVID-19 cases.

The fact that death rates per infection are dropping due to increasingly effective treatments is small consolation for those with severe cases or for the families of those who succumb.

At current infection rates, another 10 million people or more could be infected by the end of January on top of the cumulative 13 million infected as of late November. We're straining ICU capacity, and more importantly, we're placing near-impossible demands on our health care professionals.

Yet, for most of us, COVID-19 is a disease that we choose to share. Keep an appropriate distance from other human beings, and you will not catch it or spread it. To the extent we choose or are forced to do; otherwise, we are exposing ourselves to a level of risk.

For most of us, work and getting food and other essential necessities require taking some COVID risk. And here's where masks play a vital role in reducing that risk.

The federal Centers for Disease Control issued a scientific brief in early November explaining that wearing a face mask protects the wearer as well as those around them. Further, the benefits are more significant when masks are worn consistently and correctly. An added bonus: wearing masks reduces the severity of COVID-19 for those who do get the virus.

In most situations, I tend to side with those advocating individual freedom and oppose nanny-state government control. But as more has become known about the coronavirus, I have become pro-mask: Individual freedom is superseded by masks' proven effectiveness and the apparent public good.

I support Gov. Herbert's November statewide mask mandate in stores and restaurants. He stressed the coronavirus impact on hospitals and healthcare staff, noting that with hospitals heavily loaded, those who experience heart attacks, strokes, or accidents as well as those requiring surgery are also placed at risk.

Those who oppose wearing masks endanger the rest of us, even if only indirectly, by possibly infecting someone with whom we may subsequently come in contact.

We have plenty of laws restricting individual freedom that few oppose: traffic laws come immediately to mind. Do those asserting personal freedom likewise oppose speed limits and double yellow lines in the street as a matter of principle?

Coronavirus vaccines are coming, thanks to the international pharmaceutical industry, you know, the folks all too frequently painted as prioritizing profits instead of people. As the parade of successful vaccines continues, we all may have our choice of vaccines by this spring and summer. With widespread immunity, life can return to normal for most of us.

So, hang in there, baby, for another six to eight months. Endure to the end. Hold off on bar hopping and indoor socials with your friends. Visit the grandkids on Skype or FaceTime.

And for heaven's sake, wear your mask!

FOUR BRAND NEW CHRISTMAS TITLES TO STREAM THIS HOLIDAY SEASON
By Adam Mast

With many folks out there homebound for the holiday season, it should be noted; there is plenty of brand new yuletide treasures to stream from the comfort of your living room. Here are four brand new Christmas titles worthy of your viewing pleasure during the most wonderful time of the year.

“JINGLE JANGLE: A CHRISTMAS JOURNEY”

If the Greatest Showman, Peter Pan, and Willy Wonka got together and threw a big old Christmas party, it might look a little something like “Jingle Jangle: A Christmas Journey.” A magical, sentimental, toe-tapping, holiday-inspired musical about a down-on-his-luck inventor who attempts to get his mojo back after reconnecting with his adoring granddaughter. “Jingle Jangle” has a wonderful energy about it that’s punctuated by lively song and dance numbers. Still, best of all, it features a winning turn by the excellent Forest Whitaker as a quiet but warm individual who needs to relearn that sometimes, it takes a little more than talent to invent. You also have to believe in what you’re creating.

“Jingle Jangle: A Christmas Journey” is currently streaming on Netflix

“THE CHRISTMAS CHRONICLES 2”

Given the success of 2018’s “The Christmas Chronicles,” a sequel was inevitable. In this 2020 follow-up, a jolly and undeniably cool Kurt Russell returns as Santa Claus. Once again, Kris Kringle teams with young Kate, this time in a magical adventure that finds them battling a mysterious individual (played by an amusing Julian Dennison of “Hunt For the Wilderpeople” fame) with a chip on his shoulder who sets out to wage war on Christmas! Why? The answer to that question is at the very heart of this lighthearted, sentimental, and straightforward Christmas romp from “Home Alone” director and “Gremlins” screenwriter Chris Columbus. “The Christmas Chronicles 2” isn’t quite as strong as the first film, and it certainly doesn’t break any new ground in the plot department, but Russell is charming, and his real-life sweat heart Goldie Hawn proves to be a fun little addition as Mrs. Clause. Holiday entertainment for the entire family.

“The Christmas Chronicles 2” is currently streaming on Netflix.

“THE LEGO STAR WARS HOLIDAY SPECIAL”

Leave it to the clever folks over at Lucasfilm and Disney to deliver one of the most entertaining efforts of the holiday season. Rather than getting off their high horses and making 1978’s much-despised “Star Wars Holiday Special” commercially available, they’ve gone and created a brand new “Star Wars Holiday Special”...This one of the Lego variety. And the result is pure Force-inspired joy. In this creative little time-travel adventure, Rey sets off on a journey to gain more knowledge of the Force, but she gets a little more than she bargained for. “The Lego Star Wars Holiday Special” throws comical gags at a fast and furious rate. While it certainly references the original Holiday Special--This adventure does take place on Life Day, after all--it also takes a handful of playfully colorful potshots at various Saga entries in general. It’s all in good fun, and quite frankly, I enjoyed this animated short more than the “Star Wars” prequels and sequels. The only negative thing I can say about it is that I wish some of the film cast members would have jumped on board and voiced their animated counterparts. No matter, though. Between “The Mandalorian” and “The Lego Star Wars Holiday Special,” it’s clear that the Saga is truly hitting its stride on the streaming market.

“ALIEN XMAS”

This animated holiday gem might be the best Christmas special you haven’t heard about yet. It comes from the Chiodo Brothers’ creative minds who, over 30 years ago, burst on to the scene with the notable cult classic, “Killer Klowns From Outer Space.” With the wonderfully old-fashioned “Alien Christmas,” they’ve fashioned something considerably more family-friendly; A sweet-natured, offbeat fusion of “The Grinch,” “Mars Attacks!,” and a Rankin and Bass Holiday special. That’s quite the combo, and “Alien Xmas” pulls it off with flying colors! In this quirky little delight, an extra-terrestrial called X comes to Earth to secretly set the stage for an alien invasion, but upon bonding with the kind and gentle souls of the North Pole, X begins to have a change of heart. An excellent, lively, feel-good animated short for all ages.

“Alien Xmas” is currently streaming on Netflix.

“The Lego Star Wars Holiday Special” is currently streaming on Disney+

Dave Tate, Singer/Songwriter

Virtual Performance and Live on-line Reception following the show.

December 10, 2020 Thursday 7:00 pm

FREE! RSVP to zarts@springdaletown.com for links to the show and reception.

Tate’s soulful style combines pure, angelic vocals with dynamic, rhythmic acoustic guitar and poetic lyricism to present a unique combination of strength and intimacy. A native of the red rock desert of Zion National Park, Tate’s music is inspired by the vast spacious beauty of his homeland. Tate’s sometimes intimate, sometimes soaring sound is similar to the softer material of Paul Simon and Jeff Buckley.

JOSH’S “WORLD FAMOUS” VEGAN MASHED POTATOES & MUSHROOM GRAVY
By Josh Warburton

- Boil in a 3/4 filled pot of water until soft.
- Drain and let stand but not fully cool.
- Mix with 1/2 cup plain almond milk (or water) and
- 3-5 tablespoons of margarine (or more to your taste).
- Salt and pepper to taste. Mix with masher or mixer until smooth.

Gravy:
Assemble Onion, Garlic, Celery, Portabella Mushrooms, White Mushrooms, Salt, Soy Sauce, Cornstarch, Black and/or Cayenne Pepper.

Sauté one onion finely chopped, celery as well. Chop 16oz of mushrooms (ideally a combo of portabellas and white) into tiny, tiny pieces, add to onions/celery. Add 7-8 cloves of garlic finely chopped. Cook together with salt & pepper and a bit of soy sauce for about an hour until mostly mush; add olive oil along the way as needed. Then thoroughly mix a few heaping tablespoons of cornstarch into cold water in a cup. Slowly stir this mixture into cooking veggies. Bring back up to simmer. Cook down until clearish brown. Gradually add more cornstarch and water mix as necessary for desired volume and consistency. Add more salt/soy sauce to taste.

Enjoy!

Top Things To Do In Zion

Get some great hiking in Zion National Park is known for its scenic landscape and unrivaled hikes. No matter your fitness level, there are hikes here for you. Please go to ZionGuide.com to see the details on many area hikes.

Spend a day in Springdale

Springdale is unique to our national park system in that it is almost completely surrounded by Zion National Park. So when you're in Springdale, you're right in the middle of Zion Canyon.

Visit the east side of Zion and spend a day in Kanab

The east side of Zion is generally less crowded, making hikes more accessible and private. These are some of the most enjoyable hikes in the canyon. You can spot wildlife you won't see elsewhere in the canyon. The city of Kanab, situated east of the canyon, is full of unique attractions.

Take lots of pictures, leave only footprints

Be sure you've got extra charged batteries, smartphone cables, and memory cards so you can capture all the magic of Zion National Park. Additionally, there are numerous photo tour and guiding companies to assist you. Thank you for visiting the Zion National Park area.

General Tips For Zion

To avoid the crowds, go early or later in the day

Consider getting up extra early or trekking out midday after the initial rush has flooded in.

Safety Tips For Zion

Emergencies

For 24-hour emergency response, call 911 or (435) 772-3322. The Zion Canyon Medical Clinic is located in Springdale near the south entrance to the park. For hours, please call (435) 772-3226. Other medical clinics are located in Hurricane. The nearest hospitals are in St. George, Cedar City, and Kanab.

Hydrate and use refillable water bottles

It is easy to get dehydrated while hiking and walking in the desert, so pack along extra water, and be sure to take rest and water breaks on long hikes. There are a number of places to refill your water bottles in Zion National Park including the visitors' center and Zion Lodge as well as a new hydration station at the Springdale bus stop in front of The Bumbleberry Inn and Zion Canyon Brew Pub.

Be cautious near steep cliffs

Falls from cliffs on trails can result in death. Loose sand or pebbles on stone are very slippery. Be careful of edges when using cameras or binoculars. Never throw or roll rocks because there may be hikers below you. Stay on the trail. Stay back from cliff edges. Observe posted warnings. Please watch children.

Watch for flash floods

All narrow canyons are potentially hazardous. Flash floods, often caused by storms miles away, are a real danger and can be life threatening. You are assuming a risk when entering a narrow canyon. Your safety is your responsibility.

Tips To Maximize Enjoyment

Go on a less crowded hike

The most visited Zion have a lot of competition. If you'd rather not feel like you're in the line at a theme park, consider seeking out a less traveled path. Check out our newest feature, Less-Traveled Zion Hikes.

Tips To Minimize Your Impact

Pack it in, pack it out & use recycling bins

Each month, Zion National Park pays many thousands of dollars to haul away waste collected from garbage cans and recycling bins. Your experience and that of everyone who visits Zion Canyon can be improved by never littering and making sure you pick up any trash you see along the way. Recycling bins are placed strategically throughout Zion Park, and it is highly encouraged for everyone to use them.

Please stay on the marked trails

Hiking off trails can lead to loss of vegetation, soil compaction, erosion, and unsightly scars on the landscape. Remember, if you bring it in, please pack it out.

Go before you go

It is always a good idea to use the restroom before you begin a hike since facilities are limited to select locations. If you do need to take care of your business, please pack it back out.

Be respectful to the wildlife

Feeding, harming, or capturing wild animals is illegal and can cause injury or death to the animal. Animals can become aggressive beggars when fed.

Please leave it how you found it

It is illegal to remove anything from Zion National Park, including flowers, rocks, or anything else that you might find. Do not write or carve on natural surfaces.

GUIDE TO UTAH'S LIQUOR LAWS

If you order an alcoholic drink at the restaurant bar, don't be surprised when the bartender asks you to order some food with your drink. In Utah, restaurants may only serve alcoholic beverages with food. Customers don't have to order food each time they buy another drink. The beer sold in grocery stores and gas stations, and tap beer is a bit weaker in Utah, limited to 3.2% alcohol content by weight (4.0% by volume), about 0.5% less than a typical American domestic beer. You can buy full-strength beer, along with liquor and wine, in a state-operated liquor store. Please remember to tip your servers and drink responsibly! The Utah State Liquor Store in Springdale is located inside the Switchback.

Zion Canyon Shuttle & Parking Info

Get Your Shuttle Tickets Before You Head to Zion National Park For A More Pleasant Experience

All Visitors to Zion National Park Who Wish To Use The Shuttle System Are Required to Purchase a Ticket to Ride the Shuttle.

The new shuttle ticketing system is complex but quite easy to navigate once you understand the process. We highly recommend you visit www.Recreation.gov and acquaint yourself with the Help Center article for more details on purchasing a ticket, and setting up an account so your experience is a pleasant one. What's most important to understand is this; the Scenic Drive is now closed to private vehicles.

As of July 1, 2020, you will need a ticket to ride the park shuttles into Zion Canyon. The shuttle provides access along the Zion Canyon Scenic Drive to areas including Emerald Pools, West Rim Trail, the Riverside Walk, and the Narrows. This applies to ALL visitors who wish to use the ZNP Shuttles.

You can recreate along and drive through the tunnel on the Zion-Mount Carmel Highway (State Route 9, Vehicle size restrictions apply), drive the scenic Kolob Terrace Road to access additional hikes, and park and hike trails near the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, among other opportunities.

However, Zion National Park is implementing a shuttle ticket system to enable visitor access to upper Zion Canyon and the Scenic Drive while meeting COVID-19 public health guidelines. Use of the shuttle ticket system is temporary, designed to operate through December 2020.

Who Needs a Ticket?

Everyone, and we mean, everyone! You will need the Shuttle Ticket to board at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center shuttle stop, paying attention to the date and boarding time printed on the ticket. Once you are in Zion Canyon, you will be able to get on and off the shuttle using the same ticket as many times as you want. If you choose to walk or bike into Zion Canyon, you will still need a ticket if you want to take the shuttle at some point during that day. The non-refundable ticket fee is $1 USD.

Tickets are available for one-hour blocks between 6 am and 3 pm. You can board the next available shuttle at the visitor center any time during the one-hour time window you have reserved. Your ticket must be printed or downloaded and available for park staff to scan the QR code. Some lines may still occur.

Tickets are good for only one person boarding at the Visitor Center, once up-canyon you may stay as long as you choose, and get on and off the shuttle at all up-canyon stops as often you want. Your ticket will also provide shuttle service back to the visitor center when you are done up-canyon. Only 1 ticket is needed per day (per person), unless you want to board again at the visitor center later in the day. Shuttles run into the evening and a shuttle ticket is required for each day you wish to ride the shuttle.

What if you don't have a ticket when you arrive?

There is now an Afternoon Walk-Up available for those without advance shuttle tickets. Visitors can arrive at the visitor center between 3 pm and 6 pm and board shuttles on a first-come, first-served basis. The number of tickets will be limited, and boarding is not guaranteed.

You must have a shuttle ticket to ride the shuttles. If you paid the entrance

Southern Utah State & National Parks

ANASAZI STATE PARK MUSEUM - This ancient Indian village in the heart of Utah's canyon country was one of the largest Anasazi communities west of the Colorado River. The site is believed to have been occupied from A.D. 1050 to 1200. The village remains largely unexcavated, but many artifacts have been uncovered and are on display in the newly remodeled museum. Anasazi State Park is in the picturesque town of Boulder on State Route 12. Group and individual picnic areas are available. There is no camping. (435) 335-7308.

BAKER - Baker Reservoir is a small lake on the Santa Clara River four miles north of Veyo on Utah State Route 18. It is a 63-acre lake with an average depth of about 20 feet. Many people come to the reservoir to camp at one of its 10 campsites and to fish. The reservoir is stocked with rainbow trout and contains brown trout, green sunfish, crayfish, redbreast shiner, and mountain sucker. It has picnic areas and vault toilets. There is a fee for visiting the reservoir and no boat ramp.

BRYCE CANYON - Bryce Canyon National Park is a scientist's laboratory and a child's playground. Because Bryce transcends 2,000 feet of elevation, the park exists in three distinct climatic zones: spruce/fir forest, ponderosa pine forest and pinon pine/juniper forest. This diversity of habitat provides for high biodiversity. Here at Bryce, you can enjoy over 100 species of birds, dozens of mammals, and more than a thousand plant species. (435) 834-5322.

CEDAR BREAKS - Sitting at over 10,000 feet and looking down into a half-mile deep geologic amphitheater. Come wander among timeless bristlecone pines, stand in lush meadows of wildflowers, ponder crystal-clear night skies and experience the richness of our subalpine forest. Just four miles off Utah Highway 148, you'll find the Cedar Breaks National Monument parking lot.

CORAL PINK SAND DUNES - At an elevation of 6,000 feet and 12 paved miles off U.S. Highway 89 near Kanab, this park provides a fantastic setting for camping, hiking, OHV riding or just playing in the sand. A 265-acre conservation area prohibits motorized vehicles in order to protect the Coral Pink beetle (found nowhere else in the world) and its habitat. The mule deer, jackrabbit, kit fox, coyote, and many small rodents also make the park their home. (435) 648-2800.

DEAD HORSE POINT - Dead Horse Point State Park is perhaps Utah's most spectacular state park. Dead Horse Point is a promontory of stone surrounded by steep cliffs near Moab. The overlook at Dead Horse Point is 6,000 feet above sea level. Two-thousand feet below, the Colorado River winds its way from the continental divide in Colorado to the Gulf of California, a distance of 1,400 miles. (435) 259-2614.

DINOSAUR TRACKS - The St. George Dinosaur Discovery Site at Johnson Farm is home to exceptionally well-preserved dinosaur tracks, some displaying skin impressions. These tracks, along with hundreds of fossil fish, plants, rare dinosaur remains, invertebrates' traces, and important sedimentary structures, show evidence that this site was produced along the western edge of a large, Early Jurassic (age between 195-198 million years ago) freshwater lake. (435) 574-3466.

ENTERPRISE - There are two reservoirs in the Bull Valley Mountains 10 miles southwest of the town of Enterprise. The main one is Upper Enterprise Reservoir, about 250 acres with an average depth of about 50 feet, while Lower Enterprise Reservoir is 79 acres. Many come to the reservoir to camp, fish hike, and boat. The Honeycomb Campground is situated between both lakes and has 21 campsites and flush toilets. There is a boat ramp on Upper Enterprise Reservoir and several fishing areas around both reservoirs. Fishermen will find rainbow trout and smallmouth bass here. Fees are charged.

FOUR CORNERS - The Four Corners is the only place in the U.S. where four states come together at one place: Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Colorado. Here, a person can put each of their hands and feet in four states at the same time. The unique landmark is on Navajo Nation land and is open for visits from the public. West of U.S. Highway 160, 40 miles southwest of Cortez, Colo. (928) 871-6436.

GRAND CANYON - A World Heritage Site encompassing 1,218,375 acres on the Colorado Plateau in northwestern Arizona. The land is semi-arid and consists of raised plateaus and structural basins typical of the southwestern United States. (928) 638-7888.

GRAND STAIRCASE-ESCALANTE NATIONAL MONUMENT - Nearly 1.9 million acres of America's public lands and located between Bryce Canyon and Glen Canyon Recreational Areas. From its namesake Grand Staircase of cliffs and terraces across the rugged Kaiparowits Plateau to the beauty of the Escalante River Canyons, the Monument's size, resources, and isolated location provide amazing opportunities.

GUNLOCK - In scenic red rock country, 15 miles northwest of St. George, lies the 240-acre Gunlock State Park and Reservoir where year-round boating, water sports, and quality fishing for bass and catfish attract visitors. Facilities include boat launching ramp and pit privies. (435) 628-2255.

LAKE MEAD - Lake Mead National Recreation Area offers a wealth of things to do and places to go year-round. Its huge lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, sunbathers and fishermen, while its desert rewards hikers, wildlife photographers, and roadside sightseers. It is also home to thousands of desert plants and animals adapted to survive in an extreme place where rain is scarce and temperatures soar. (702) 293-8990.

LAKE POWELL - In Glen Canyon National Recreation Area is one of the world's great places for houseboating! The 186-mile-long lake offers sandy beaches, cool blue water, and exceptional red-rock scenery. It is excellent for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing. Boat or hike to Rainbow Bridge, or explore any of its many canyons or sand dunes. (928) 608-6200.

PINE VALLEY - Pine Valley Reservoir is a beautiful place for fishermen to fish brook trout and rainbow trout. The reservoir is near the Pine Valley Recreation Complex, which has over 150 campsites with picnic and restroom facilities. This area is greener than most other parts of southwestern Utah with pine and pinon trees, and many come to enjoy camping and hiking. It is west of the town of Central. (435) 652-3100.

QUAIL LAKE - Quail Creek State Park provides excellent year-round camping, picnicking, boating, and trout and bass fishing in sunny southwest Utah. The park is three miles east of the Interstate 15 Hurricane exit on Utah State Route 9. Facilities include 23 campsites, modern restrooms, a fish cleaning station, and two covered group-use pavilions. (435) 879-2378.

SAND HOLLOW - Looking to fish? Swim? Ride your ATV in the sand? Do all that and more at Sand Hollow State Park, located between St. George and Hurricane. Bring your boat, a picnic, and some fishing gear for a fun day on the reservoir, or watch the kids swim while you relax on the beach. Load up your RV or tent and settle in for a nice campout, or ride your ATV in the dunes of Sand Mountain. (435) 680-0715.

SNOW CANYON - Named after early Utah leaders Lorenzo and Erastus Snow, Snow Canyon State Park begins just outside of Ivins and stretches northward. Spectacular scenery includes towering red and white sandstone cliffs, black lava formations, and even a waterfall that appears during heavy rain. Snow Canyon offers 16 miles of hiking trails, beautiful sand dunes, technical rock climbing sites, horseback riding, year-round camping, nature studies, and wildlife viewing. This park is a favorite for locals and visitors alike. (435) 628-2255.

ZION - With breathtaking views, numerous hiking attractions of all difficulty levels and some of the most spectacular scenery on earth, Zion National Park and its surrounding areas attract thousands of visitors every year. This natural wonder is not only a mecca of recreational activity, but Zion and nearby Springdale host numerous cultural activities, as well. There's something for everyone in Zion - whether you're looking for a challenging hike or a fun excursion for the family. (435) 772-3256.

Trail Closures (as of March 1 '20)

The Weeping Rock Trail, Hidden Canyon Trail, and Observation Point Trail (East Rim from Weeping Rock) are closed due to rockfall damage. These closures are indefinite at this time. Lower Emerald Pools Trail is closed for trail repairs until Spring 2020.

Hiking is popular in Zion National Park, and popular hikes are seeing record visitation at peak days and times. For a less congested trek, consider these less-traveled hikes.

Northgate Peaks

By Don Gilman

The Northgate Peaks trail in the Kolob Terrace section of Zion National Park is an amazing trail with spectacular views. The trail itself is nearly flat, making it a perfect hike for families.

To reach the Northgate Peaks trailhead, take State Route 9 to the town of Virgin. Turn left onto Kolob Terrace Road. Drive for 15.7 miles through increasingly spectacular country until the short spur road (on the 3 miles long and will take about 2 hours to finish.

To start this hike, park in the lot located immediately east of the Zion/Mt. Carmel Tunnel. The trail begins at the backside of the restrooms at the back of the parking lot. There will be a steep, sandy path to climb down before you enter Pine Creek slot. Follow the path upstream for almost 75 feet, and look for a 15-foot wall of slickrock. You can scramble up the rock or look for the beaten path on the backside of the rock.

On top of this wall is a narrow dirt path that is crowded by rock and vegetation. It winds around the mountain to a dead end with a beautiful view of the mountain where the Canyon Overlook Trail is located, opposite is Gifford Canyon.

The path will lead past stone bridge and to another minor slickrock climb. At the end of the canyon, there is a circle of cliffs preventing further exploration without climbing up the sandstone.

Shortly after you get through the housing development, you will hit a sign letting you know you are entering the Zion Wilderness. At this point, you can breathe a sigh of relief, because you have gotten away from civilization to enjoy nature, and chances are that you won't see another soul until you return to your car.

Watch for a sign that indicates the direction to Hidden Canyon.

A well-traveled path takes trekkers between sheer sandstone walls rising up hundreds of feet, made up by some of Zion's most famous landmarks: Cable Mountain and the Great White Throne. Once beyond the end right) for the Wildcat Trailhead is reached. Drive a few hundred feet to the large parking area.

The trail heads east across grassy plains and stands of Ponderosa Pine with dynamite views of the towering Pine Valley Peak to the west. Soon the trail will be fully in the forest with limited views. After 0.9 miles, the junction with the Hop Valley trail is reached. Continue east, and 0.1 miles further, the junction with the Northgate Peaks Trail is reached. Head south on this trail for another 1.1 miles until the end of the official trail is reached at a rocky basalt bluff with epic views of the Northgate Peaks to the east and west and of North Guardian Angel to the south.

For families with young children, this makes an excellent turnaround spot.

Gifford Canyon

By Bo Beck

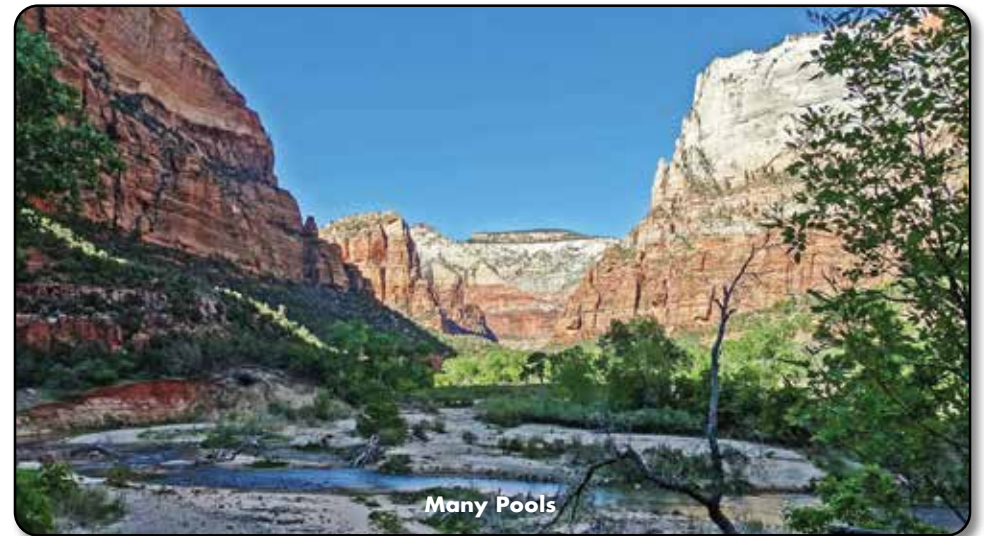

Gifford Canyon offers a nice stroll through a sandy wash and is very charming when water is running. This hike is nearly

Chinle Trail

By Greta Hyland

Chinle Trail is an off-the-beaten-path trail located in the lower elevation west desert wilderness area, offering wide vistas, desert landscapes, and a reprieve from the more touristy trails in the park. Though it's a long trail, it's a mellow hike that can be cut off whenever you feel like turning around. It's a great hike with kids because it's not treacherous, slippery, or steep. Avoid it after snow or rain as it will be muddy.

The Chinle Trailhead starts outside of Zion, south of Springdale. If you are coming from St. George, the turn is about a block before you hit the apple orchard and stand as you leave Rockville off of State Route 9. There is a parking area off the right of Anasazi Way near the Anasazi Plateau housing development. If you hit houses, you missed it. And yes, the trail starts below the housing development and takes you right through it. Don't worry though, it doesn't last long.

Many Pools

Many Pools

By Candice Reed

The route is moderate with a gentle uphill climb to an alcove, but plan for a strenuous hike if you continue to the East Rim.

The route begins right off the highway. Drive to the pullout near the second drainage on the north side of the State Route 9, about 0.8 miles after the smaller tunnel. Walk carefully along the road about 150 yards and drop down into a sandy bowl on the north side of SR-9. There is a trail for a short distance, and then the sand turns into large flat stones that you can pick and choose to walk on, depending on your sense of balance. A short distance off the road, filled pools carved into the rocks appear. Ponderosa Pines and Juniper trees twisted by the wind are a good backdrop to the reds and whites ribboned through the rocks.

Hidden Canyon

By Bo Beck and Tanya Milligan

Hidden Canyon features steep ascents, narrow foot paths, and switchbacks on a narrow cliffside with exposure at high elevations. Some parts have chains to use for assistance. Be cautious near slippery sandstone areas with steep dropoffs. Expect full sun in most places after the early morning. Once you are into the canyon, it is shady and surprisingly cool.

This impressive 2.2-mile roundtrip hike begins at the same busy trailhead as Weeping Rock, Observation Point, and the East Rim. Begin at the Weeping Rock Trailhead, which quickly splits to the left. The trail you want to follow bears right toward the East Rim, Observation Point, and Hidden Canyon.

of the actual trail and into the slot canyon, look for small sandstone caves and a 20-foot long arch. Be careful to only explore as far as you know is safe for you! Few should ever venture past the freestanding arch.

Sandstone pools at the end of this hike are a favorite spot of the delightful and boisterous canyon tree frogs. Look for the tiny gray creatures near the water, and listen for their loud trilling. Past the pools is the end of the Hidden Canyon Trail.

Overlook Trail

By Charlotte Emmett

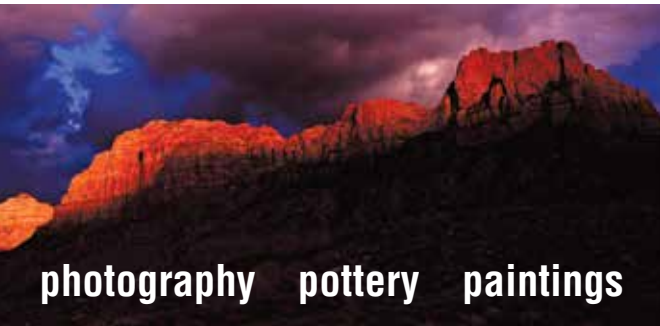

The Overlook Trail is a short, beautiful hike located on the east side of Zion National Park, just outside the Mt. Carmel tunnel. The hike is about one mile roundtrip, and it usually takes people about an hour. It is definitely one of the easier hikes in Zion, but it's still considered a moderate-level hike due to a few exposed areas and sandstone pathways, which can be slippery.

The Overlook trailhead lies right outside of the Mt. Carmel tunnel by the ranger booth. Exit the tunnel too quickly and you'll miss it.

It begins with a staircase carved out of the sandstone leading up and away from the road. Soon, you'll be walking along the side of the mountain and looking down into a thin crevice known as Pine Creek Canyon. At about halfway, you'll walk across a bridge that wraps around a corner and leads to an area of recessed rock wet with the moisture that caused it to erode and be filled with ferns growing out of the sandstone.

Popular Zion Hikes

Trail Closures (as of March 1 '20)

The Weeping Rock Trail, Hidden Canyon Trail, and Observation Point Trail (East Rim from Weeping Rock) are closed due to rockfall damage. These closures are indefinite at this time. Lower Emerald Pools Trail is closed for trail repairs until Spring 2020.

Warning: These hikes are very popular and often overcrowded. While they are well worth doing, expect them to be a little congested.

If you are feeling up to some of the more difficult hikes, try some of these popular hikes.

Angels Landing via West Rim Trail

Possibly the most popular hike in Zion, Angels Landing takes around four hours to complete and covers just under 5 1/2 miles. As you work your way up the 1,488-foot change in elevation, you'll want to look out for long drop-offs. This hike is not for young children or people with a fear of heights. Be sure to enjoy, but be careful along the last section of the hike, which is a steep, narrow ridge to the summit. The hike starts at The Grotto.

Observation Point via East Rim Trail

This hike climbs through Echo Canyon to a viewpoint of Zion Canyon and offers access to Cable Mountain, Deertrap, and East Mesa trails. Plan for at least half of a day as this hike takes around five hours to complete and stretches over 8 miles. The 2,148-foot change in elevation from start to finish has long drop-offs, so be careful. Like Hidden Canyon Trail, this hike starts at Weeping Rock.

The Narrows via Riverside Walk

A full-day hike at 8 hours, the Narrows can pose extra dangers depending on the weather. High water levels can prevent access to the Narrows, so be sure to check with the visitor center before beginning this 9 1/2-mile hike. You'll start this hike at Temple of Sinawava.

Kolob Arch via La Verkin Creek Trail

Getting to Kolob Arch via the La Verkin Creek Trail follows Timber and La Verkin creeks and connects to the trail to Kolob Arch, one of the world's largest freestanding arches. A full-day hike, it will take around 8 hours to finish the 14-fourteen mile trip. This hike starts at Kolob Canyons Road.

If you are looking for something more moderate, try some of these mid-range hikes.

Watchman Trail

Starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this hike takes about two hours and covers just under 3 miles. The 368-foot elevation has some minor drop-offs and ends at a view point for Tower of the Virgin, lower Zion Canyon, and Springdale.

Middle Emerald Pools Trail

A two-hour hike, Middle Emerald Pools has long drop-offs. The unpaved trail to the Middle Emerald Pools has loose sand and slippery rocks. You'll cover two miles in 2 hours over the course of a 150-foot elevation gain. The hike starts at Zion Lodge.

Upper Emerald Pool Trail

Starting at Zion Lodge, this is a shorter trail covering one mile in about an hour. You will rise 200-feet in elevation, and there are minor drop-offs.

Kayenta Trail

This two-hour hike starts at the Grotto and goes for two miles. You'll gain 150 feet in elevation, and the trail does have long drop-offs. This unpaved climb connects the Grotto to the Emerald Pools trails.

Canyon Overlook Trail

Starting at Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, this one-hour hike provides a 163-foot gain in elevation over the course of a mile. This rocky and uneven trail ends at a viewpoint for Pine Creek Canyon and lower Zion Canyon. While this trail is mostly fenced, there are long drop-offs.

Taylor Creek Trail

You'll begin this five-mile hike at Kolob Canyons Road. It should take around 4 hours to complete and provides a 450-foot gain in elevation. Larger groups may need to split up, as this hike limits 12 people to a group. It follows the Middle Fork of Taylor Creek past two homestead cabins to Double Arch Alcove.

Timber Creek Overlook Trail

A quick hike, the Timber Creek Overlook Trail covers just one mile and 100 feet in elevation gain. It can be done in about 30 minutes. The trail follows a ridge to a small peak with views of Timber Creek, Kolob Terrace, and Pine Valley Mountains.

Those looking for something less strenuous should check out these easy hikes.

Pa'rus Trail

Starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this two-hour hike covers 3 1/2 miles and rises 50 feet in elevation. A paved trail that follows the Virgin River from the South Campground to Canyon Junction, Pa'rus Trail is wheelchair accessible and is open to both bicycles and dogs.

Archeology Trail

Also starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this short half-hour hike covers just under half a mile and rises 80 feet in elevation, making it a short but steep trail. This trail offers trailside exhibits and views of several prehistoric buildings.

Lower Emerald Pool Trail

This paved trail leads to the Lower Emerald Pool and waterfalls. It also connects to the Middle Emerald Pools Trail. It should take about an hour and covers just over one mile with 69 feet in elevation gain.

Grotto Trail

Starting at Zion Lodge or the Grotto, this trail connects the two locations and can be combined with the Middle Emerald Pools and Kayenta trails to create a 2 1/2-mile loop. The non-loop version should take about 30 minutes and rises 35 feet over one mile.

Weeping Rock Trail

A short but steep hike, the Weeping Rock Trail offers trailside exhibits. This paved trail ends at a rock alcove with dripping springs. It rises 98 feet over just under a half mile. It can be completed in about 30 minutes.

Riverside Walk

Starting at Temple of Sinawava, this 1 1/2-hour hike cover just over two miles and rises 57 feet in elevation. While it is wheelchair accessible, there are minor drop-offs. The trail, which is paved, offers trailside exhibits as it follows the Virgin Rivet along the bottom of a narrow canyon.
