SIT, STAY, AND PLAY AT BEST FRIENDS

Whether you are driving through Kanab or staying several days, Best Friends Animal Society has plenty of options for animal-loving travelers this summer.

Set in Kanab's spectacular Angel Canyon, Best Friends Animal Sanctuary cares for about 1,600 dogs, cats, pigs, goats, horses, bunnies, birds, and wildlife on any given day, making it the nation's largest no-kill Sanctuary.

Visitors can experience Best Friends' lifesaving work in action with free daily tours of the Sanctuary and individual animal care areas. At the same time, volunteers can help socialize puppies or bunnies, feed pigs, groom horses, take a dog for a walk or a cat on a stroller ride, and much more.

For those looking to bring a new best friend home, adoptable pets are available to meet every day at the Welcome Center, Sinjin's in Cat World, or the Adoption Hub on Rhonda Road.

Guests can also enjoy a $5 daily vegan buffet lunch at the Village Café, which boasts a million-dollar view of the stunning Southern Utah canyons surrounding the Sanctuary. The buffet includes a salad bar, main dish, sides, desserts, and coffee or tea from 11:30 AM to 1 PM.

These fantastic experiences led to Best Friends Animal Sanctuary winning the 2024 Best of State Utah awards for Best Attraction, Best Recreation/Activity Facility, and Best Health Foods. Best Friends was also a big winner at the Best of Southern Utah in 2024, taking home medals for Best Nonprofit and Best Place to Volunteer.

If you want to stay on-site, pet-friendly lodging can be found on-site in one of the Sanctuary's several cabins, cottages, cabins, and RV sites that offer views of horse pastures and starry skies at affordable rates.

The RV sites have been expanded and appointed with brand-new restrooms that feature sparkling clean showers. Flat paths with beautiful scenery abound, perfect for walking the dog or taking a bike ride. Hikers can enjoy trails all around the Sanctuary, including one that leads to a hidden lake where it's 20 degrees cooler than the outside.

There's also the Best Friends Roadhouse & Mercantile in downtown Kanab, winner of the 2022 and 2023 Best Motel Award from Best of State Utah, as well as the Best of the Best in Hospitality in 2023.

Designed as the most pet-centric hotel in the country, the Roadhouse extends the Sanctuary experience by offering guests sleepovers of Sanctuary dogs, cats, and bunnies. Guests can also bring their pets; up to 4 dogs or cats can stay in each room at no charge.

A vegan continental breakfast and coffee are offered in the Mercantile, and Roadhouse guests will also receive two free passes for lunch at Angel Village Cafe. From May through October, yoga and live music take place on the Roadhouse stage every Saturday morning and evening. Stargazers can enjoy the especially dark night skies in Kanab, while others can opt to gather around the bonfire and make s'mores from a vegan kit in the Mercantile.

The Mercantile is a festive place to have a meeting, hang out, play games or buy a gift for the pet lovers in your life. The merchandise here is so unique the Roadhouse was recently named the Best Place to Buy a Unique Gift by Best of Southern Utah.

However long you plan to visit Kanab – a few hours, days, or even weeks – you won't want to miss the magic of the Best Friends!

Call (435) 688-2327 or visit bestfriends.org to learn more about the Sanctuary. For info about or to book a stay at the Roadhouse & Mercantile, call (435) 644-3400 or check out bestfriendsroadhouse.org.

SIMONFEST THEATRE COMPANY CELEBRATES 22 SEASONS

With two beloved musicals and a classic comedy, there's something for everyone!

This season's productions include Fiddler on the Roof, Ordinary Days, and Steel Magnolias, and will play in Cedar City's Heritage Center Theatre from July 5 – August 3. Fiddler on the Roof will then travel to the Egyptian Theatre in Park City, performing August 7 – 11, and then move to the Bumbleberry Theatre in Springdale, performing August 22 – 24.

Fiddler on the Roof will star SimonFest founder and producer Richard Bugg as Tevye. "This is the role of a lifetime," says Bugg. "It has definitely been on my bucket list. While I have directed the show before, I have never filled Tevye's shoes."

Richard's wife, Rebekah Bugg, will direct Fiddler. "It's a joy to tackle a musical with such strong and universal themes," remarks Rebekah, "especially at a time with such turmoil in the world. The play reminds us that we all face the difficult task of sorting out which of our traditions are based on core principles and which have been passed down without our understanding of their origins or purposes. There is sadness in this show, which only heightens its laughter and joy."

The other musical that will warm the SimonFest boards this Summer is Adam Gwon's Ordinary Days. The delightful story weaves together the lives of four young New Yorkers as they navigate the complexities of love, loss, and connection in the city. Associate Producer Alyson King Wheeler will take on the directing challenge. "I have had the pleasure," adds Wheeler, "of directing four amazing local actors and a brilliant pianist who are anything but ordinary. This heartfelt, funny and beautiful story will inspire you."

Rounding out this year's season is the charming comedy classic Steel Magnolias by Robert Harling. With an all-female directing staff this season, SimonFest chose co-directors Desiree Whitehead and Chrystine Potter Hyatt to take the lead on Magnolias. The story pivots around the lively Truvy Jones' Louisiana beauty parlor, where a tightly-knit band of friends confront grief, loss, and life's unforeseen tragedies and heartaches with wit, charm, and a great deal of laughter.

This will be the SimonFest Theatre Company's final season under its current name. The company's name will be changed to American Crossroads Theatre starting in September. "We are grateful to our founding inspirations provided us through the works of Neil Simon and his contemporaries, but now we are poised to expand our vision beyond our original mission," says Founder Richard Bugg.

The SimonFest Summer Season runs July 5 through August 3 at the Heritage Center Theatre in Cedar City. For performance times and ticket information, go to SimonFest.org or call 435-267-0194. For tickets to the Fiddler on the Roof dates in Park City (August 7-11), visit ParkCityShows.com or call (855) 745-7469. For tickets to the Fiddler on the Roof dates in Springdale, go to bumbleberry.com/springdale-utah-theater/ or call (435) 772-3224.

KANAB ARTS BOARD THIRD QUARTER EXHIBITION

By Ria Mendoza Hoyt

Kanab and neighboring communities are in for a treat! This quarter, the Kanab Arts Board Third Quarter Exhibition is featuring Melissa Bowersock, writer and photographer, and the local art group "The Creative Crones". The exhibition will officially open with a reception on July 18, 5:30-6:30 PM at the Kane County Hospital Lobby.

At the Kanab City Library, Melissa Bowersock, writer and photographer, strives to capture the beauty and grandeur of the natural world. Melissa has lived in four Western states and has photographed many of the nation's most iconic landscapes as well as their smallest, highly ephemeral moments that more often than not simply disappear unnoticed.

At the Kane County Hospital Lobby, we have The Creative Crones, a local group of women who banded together with one encompassing denominator: their love of art. The group chose "crone" as part of their name to symbolize women who have entered the stage in life where they have wisdom, freedom and personal power. The group is composed of a dozen women who meet every week to work on different art projects as they seek community, spiritual significance, and expression through their collective artistic experience.

First among The Creative Crones is Karen Arndt whose passion lies with gourd art. The natural forms of gourds inspires her to explore new techniques and designs. She has been a resident of Kanab for the last 24 years and has previously worked at the Best Friends Animal Sanctuary where her love for giving back blossomed.

Originating from Santa Rosa, California, Bobbi Chaney has made Kanab her home for the last 20 years. She has a degree in art therapy and uses it as a means to achieve self awareness and personal growth both for herself and her clients as a Marriage and Family Therapist.

Debra Csenge moved from Topsham, Maine to Kanab in 2009. She has a bachelors degree in Fine Arts from the University of Southern Maine in Portland-Gorham, and has shown her paintings both in Maine and Utah. Now, she enjoys "en plein air" landscape paintings and making block prints.

Gail Everhart was raised on a farm in Indiana by her Depression-era-raised parents with the idea that art was a frivolous use of time and energy. It was later in life, while struggling with grief and loss, when her therapist recommended trying an artistic outlet.

Sue Fox comes from a long line of women who couldn't simply sit still and do nothing. Their "spare" moments were always spent sewing. Growing up in this industrious environment, she learned to love her mother's sewing machine really early and was already making tailored clothes when she was only in high school.

Marcia Martin's love of art started in grade school and culminated in doing large scale textile commissions in California for 15 years. As a retiree, she enjoys small scale art and the camaraderie of their art group.

Armed with a Brownie camera, Cathy McKenzie started taking photographs as a young girl. She grew up loving photography, especially landscapes. At 22, she moved from Miami to Colorado, then to California, and finally to the Pacific Northwest, the area which she never imagined ever leaving.

Deborah Swanson and her husband, Nick, moved to Kanab in 2010 after living in the San Francisco Bay Area. They were lured here by the sheer beauty of the area, Best Friends, and the fact that Deborah's sister also moved in Kanab.

The last exhibiting member of the The Creative Crones is Cindy Von Halle. For Cindy, making art is an extension of her love of nature. She up-cycles materials, plays with composition, and draws inspiration from all the beautiful places she's called home.

The Creative Crones and Melissa Bowersock's artworks will be exhibited at the Kane County Hospital Lobby and Kanab City Library respectively until the end of September. We invite everybody to come and support our local artists by attending the opening reception hosted by the Kane County Hospital. Refreshments will be served. If you are a local artist interested in exhibiting with us, please send us an email at KanaArts@gmail.com.

CLASSIC MUSICAL "GYPSY" TAKES CENTER STAGE THIS SUMMER

This summer, from July 25 to August 10, 2024, experience the magic of live theater at its finest, with performances running Thursday through Saturday at 7:30 PM.

Musical direction by the talented Amy Gleave will ensure that Jule Styne's unforgettable score and Stephen Sondheim's brilliant lyrics are brought to life with passion and precision. Gleave's experience and dedication to musical excellence will make every note resonate with the audience, creating an immersive and emotive experience.

Choreographer Shellie Thomas, who also stars as Dainty June, will showcase her dual talents in this production. Her innovative and dynamic choreography will add an extra layer of excitement and energy, making the dance numbers truly spectacular.

The stellar cast features Christine France in the iconic role of Mama Rose, a performance that is sure to be both powerful and nuanced. France's portrayal will capture the complexity of a mother whose ambition for her daughters knows no bounds. Heather Oram stars as Gypsy Rose Lee, bringing grace and depth to the character as she transforms from a shy young girl into a confident star. Shellie Thomas, in addition to her choreography duties, will shine as Dainty June, while Dean Jones will bring warmth and charm to the role of Herbie.

"Gypsy" is a heartwarming and at times heartrending story of family, ambition, and the relentless pursuit of the American Dream. Set in the world of vaudeville and burlesque, the musical follows the journey of the indomitable stage mother Mama Rose and her daughters as they strive for success.

Don't miss your chance to see "Gypsy" by The Stage Door at The Electric Theater, 68 E. Tabernacle in Downtown St. George. Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased at stagedoorutah.com or by calling our box office at 435-656-4407. WINE MAKING THRIVES IN SOUTHERN UTAH

By Patrick Hayes

Zion Vineyards in July, it is HOT, HOT, HOT!!! The grapes are ripening beautifully, and we are looking at some high-quality fruit. Our irrigation system is a drip system allotting a gallon and a half of water per plant per day, with little evaporation. Grapes are like Humans, struggle breeds' character so we don't want to over water. In July though, we give our grapes plenty of water and then dial it back as Harvest approaches, this will allow the sugar concentration to rise. The higher the sugar concentration the higher the alcohol content. Here at Zion Vineyards, Harvest starts mid to late August and runs until mid-October.

In July come out and join us for a Wine Tasting and ask for a Tour. We will take you out into the vineyard, and ripeness permitting, you may taste many of our different grapes, hanging on the vine.

We will have new wines and new vintages for you to try. These include our Tempranillo and Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve. Tempranillo is a Spanish varietal, it is medium-bodied to full-bodied with red fruit characters and is similar Cabernet Sauvignon and Sangiovese. It has contrasting flavors of leather and cherries, and with a nice balance between earth and fruit. The finish is smooth and lingers with the taste of tannin on both sides of your mouth.

The Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve is aged in both French and American Oak providing notes from both. American oak provides a greater number of aromas, including tropical or exotic notes such as coconut, as well as roasted aromas such as coffee, smoke, tobacco and cocoa. French oak, on the other hand, offers more delicate and subtle aromas: vanilla, honey, and nuts, plus sweet and herbaceous spices (balsamic aromas). The wines were aged separately in both the American and French Oak barrels for a year. We then did a bench test to determine the ratio we would use of each barrel, and we agreed on a 50/50 blend.

Please come on out and join us for a fun time and taste some of our award-winning wines. Visit us at 5 Hidden Valley Road in Leeds. We are just 12 miles north of St George and just off the I-15 in beautiful Leeds Utah. Reservations are not needed We are Open Seven Days a Week, noon til 6 PM. Online at www.zionvines.com or call 435-216-1340.

UTAH KEEPS COMING OUT ON TOP

By Howard Sierer

Utah came out #1 again in U.S. News' annual ranking of the best states for 2024, repeating its #1 ranking from 2023. As was the case last year, Utah's consistency in categories across the board helped make it the king. The state landed in the top 10 in five of the eight categories measured by U.S. News, peaking at second in education followed by #3 finishes in both economy and infrastructure. The state has risen to national prominence after over a century when it was perceived as a backwater.

While generally taken for granted by those of us living here, Utah is also known for another admirable quality. Ben Blau, head of the Department of Economics and Finance at Utah State University, says "the people are extremely nice. You'll hear that periodically of folks that go and visit Utah. In fact, sometimes they're almost too nice – people get a little weirded out."

I've written a number of columns describing what all that those nice folks have accomplished in recent years and I thought it is time for a recap:

Utah was ranked #1 for economic outlook 10 years in a row.

Forbes magazine rated Utah as the best state for business three years in a row and for five out of six years.

The website "24/7 Wall Street" analyzed 50 measures of doing business and ranked Utah first.

Chief Executive Magazine rated Utah's workforce quality best in the country.

WalletHub ranked five Utah cities near the top of its "Best Small Cities for Starting a Business." Our own St. George is #2 on the list.

The Wasatch Front's "Silicon Slopes" received national recognition as #1 on Forbes magazine's "Tomorrow's Tech Meccas"

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce ranked Utah No. 1 in innovation and entrepreneurship.

Pew Research found that "the middle-class is still thriving in Utah."

CNBC ranks our state as best in the country for families with middle class incomes.

Utah has one of the lowest percentages of children in poverty.

Bloomberg ran an article titled "How Utah Keeps the American Dream Alive."

Utah is the only state in country to rate an A+ for teaching financial literacy in its public schools.

Utah was one of America's five healthiest states due in no small part to our fourth lowest obesity rate and the lowest percentage of smokers. The payoff: Utah is ranked first in states to grow old in.

Utah was best in the country in navigating its economy through the pandemic according to 24/7 Wall St. growing our economy at a 4.3% rate during 2020 while the nation as whole dropped 1.3%.

Utah was the fastest growing state in the union over the 10 years leading up to the 2020 census.

Utah was ranked as having the best state economic outlook for the 15th consecutive year by the ALEC-Laffer State Economic Competitiveness Index.

Provo-Orem demonstrated the best economic performance among larger cities for the second year in a row, according to the 2022 Milken Institute Best-Performing Cities Index with Logan and St. George first and second among small cities.

Morningstar, the highly respected financial rating firm, says, "Utah's my529 plan is the only 529 plan that's consistently received a 'Gold' rating since we debuted our ratings in 2012,

Wallet Hub ranked Utah as the best state in the union to start a business in 2023.

Utah had the lowest unemployment rate in the country at 2.2% in December 2022.

The Volunteering and Civic Life in America website once again ranks Utah as the national leader in volunteer service.

Last month, I reported that Utah's Salt Lake City tech hub was the country's hottest job market in 2023.

These accolades won't go on forever but I'm pretty safe in predicting that Utah will stay near the top in a wide variety of measures. Those "nice people" will see to that.

NORTHERN CORRIDOR BATTLE CONTINUES

By Lisa Rutherford

The battle over an east-west transportation route across Washington County continues to be in the headlines with the public comment period underway until July 9.

The BLM's Draft Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement (DSEIS) was issued in May for review and comment but only recently have transportation reports by the county's Dixie Metropolitan Planning Organization's (DMPO) addressing performance and cost of the alternative routes been made available to citizens.

Local officials who support UDOT's Northern Corridor route through Red Cliffs National Conservation Area/Reserve north of St. George assert that population growth has accelerated, increasing the need for the highway through critical Mojave desert tortoise (MDT) habitat. Actually, growth has slowed according to a December 2023 Spectrum & Daily News article that stated: "...the region was growing about half as fast as it was from 2020 to 2021."

Population projections for 2030 (226,228) and 2040 (332,728) included in the DMPO analyses are lower than projections of 304,669 (2030) and 380,592 (2040) made in 1995 when Red Cliffs Desert Reserve (now mostly NCA) was being established.

Decision makers in the 90s faced difficult decisions regarding how to allow growth while protecting the threatened Mojave desert tortoise. Red Cliffs was the compromise. They had a clear understanding of where population growth was headed due to population projections but mandated "no new roads" in Red Cliffs and only Red Hills Parkway could be expanded.

Washington County is destined to be another large metropolitan area, and as this county continues to grow, so will traffic challenges. By making a bad decision at this point, a spectacular area that agencies have been mandated to protect will have been used as a pawn to further political purposes of officials rather than dealing with difficult issues such as bad planning and zoning.

DMPO's traffic performance and cost information shows that Red Hills Parkway Expressway and One-way Couplet, in downtown St. George, perform as well or better than UDOT's preferred route and are cheaper. These are the 2026 price ranges for these alternatives:

- UDOT's Northern Corridor highway alternative: $206,000,000 - $310,000,000 (includes 20% contingency)
- Red Hills Parkway Expressway: $196,274,000 - $294,411,000 2026 (includes

THE INDEPENDENT MOVIE REVIEW

By Adam Mast

HORIZON: AN AMERICAN SAGA-CHAPTER 1 (R)

"Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 1" serves as the first entry in Kevin Costner's 4-part western epic.

Horizon is the latest epic western from Kevin Costner (who also serves as the film's director, co-star, and co-writer) and there's very little doubt that this endeavor is quite the ambitious gamble. It should also be noted that this is an old-fashioned, swing-for-the-fences, passion project that's very difficult to review on its own because—in case you haven't heard—this particular movie is but one piece of a much bigger 4-part picture. Hence the subtitle Chapter One.

In this regard, Costner (a beloved storyteller who has managed to maintain superstar status deep into his decades-spanning career thanks greatly in part to his work on Taylor Sheridan's popular streaming series, "Yellowstone"), is asking quite a bit from his audience. That's why I pointed out what a gamble this is for both Costner and Warner Brothers. But then, the heart wants what the heart wants and it's clear that Costner's heart is all in. As for me? I'm more than willing to go along for the ride. This isn't to say I don't have issues with "Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 1," but having seen the movie twice now, I certainly appreciate the ambition.

This sprawling, episodic, Civil War-set film delves into the lives of multiple characters as they all look to make their way through harsh times in a country divided. It's a story of men, women, soldiers, mothers, fathers, children, life, death, history, and politics told through various points of view. Yes, that's a pretty broad description but then, this is a pretty broad movie.

"Horizon" features a huge ensemble (some of these actors are more familiar than others) and the extensive cast includes the likes of Costner (whose Hayes Ellison doesn't show up until about the one hour mark of this three hour movie), Sienna Miller, Sam Worthington, Abbey Lee, Jena Malone, Luke Wilson, Jamie Campbell Bowler, Michael Rooker, Will Patton, Owen Crow Shoe, Danny Huston, Tatanka Means, Colin Cunningham, Hayes Costner, Michael Angarano, James Russo, Jeff Fahey, and Dale Dickey, just to name a few.

Of the sizable cast, there are a handful of notable standouts to speak of; Rooker ("Guardians of the Galaxy," "Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer") is warm and charming as a military Sgt. looking to keep up the morale of both his soldiers and the civilians, he sets out to look after. Malone ("The Neon Demon," "Stepmom") brings real tenacity to the table as a no-nonsense firecracker of a mother/wife with a complicated past. Miller is elegant and lovely as a woman looking to start anew with her daughter after tragedy strikes. And young Etienne Kellici makes quite the impression in a small amount of screen time as a boy on the cusp of manhood desperately trying to make sense of a world he doesn't quite understand.

As directed by Costner and as written by his co-writer Jon Baird, "Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 1" has a lot going on. Perhaps too much. The film does meander at times and there are certainly characters, relationships, and situations that leave more of an impact than others. Additionally, the film is a bit clunky with pacing at times and it probably could have stood to be tightened up a bit. At the same time, kudos to Costner and crew for mounting some impressive set pieces (the settlement attack in the first act is quite harrowing) and for striving to show the good and bad aspects of human nature on various sides.

From a technical standpoint, "Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 1" is really impressive. The highest of praise to DP J. Michael Muro for his spectacular cinematography, composer John Debney for his rousing score, and costume designer Lisa Lovaas for bringing an undeniable level of authenticity to the proceedings.

It's clear that Costner has a full-blown love for the western and if you've seen some of his work of the past—dating back to his high energy turn in Lawrence Kasdan's 80s gem "Silverado"—then you're already well aware of this. With its episodic nature, this first chapter of "Horizon" certainly recalls John Ford epics like "The Searchers" and sprawling historic westerns like "How the West Was Won." That said, there are many times throughout this film where one might get the impression that this entire endeavor might have worked better as a 12-part miniseries. Again, though, that may be a premature statement given that we have yet to see how this whole thing is going to play out. Perhaps I'll hold out on my official opinion on the matter until after I bear witness to the next three chapters.

Regardless, the flipside to the miniseries argument comes in the form of the massive scope at the core of this visually sumptuous movie. The breathtaking landscapes on display (most of which was shot in the beautiful, picturesque state of Utah), make it the kind of effort worthy of seeing on the biggest screen possible. In other words, if you want to get the full epic effect, don't wait for streaming. Go see this bad boy in a theater. Just allow me to reiterate that "Chapter 1" is more of a groundwork movie. This is to say that in terms of flow and story structure, "Chapter 1" isn't in the same vein as something like the "Lord of the Rings" movies. While "Fellowship of the Ring," "The Two Towers," and "Return of the King" certainly make for one massive story, they also played as effective standalone stories. "Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 1" requires an entirely different kind of patience. Again, though, as I'm sure is the case with many a fan, I'm willing to stick with it because this isn't Costner's first rodeo and quite frankly, when it comes to the old school western, the man behind the superior "Dances With Wolves" and "Open Range" tends to deliver.

On a final note, "Chapter 1" ends with a high energy peek at "Horizon: An American Saga-Chapter 2," which opens in theaters on August 18th. "Chapter 3" goes into production shortly thereafter.

Safety Tips For Zion

Emergencies

For 24-hour emergency response, call 911 or (435) 772-3322. The Zion Canyon Medical Clinic is located in Springdale near the south entrance to the park. For hours, please call (435) 772-3226. Other medical clinics are located in Hurricane. The nearest hospitals are in St. George, Cedar City, and Kanab.

Hydrate and use refillable water bottles

It is easy to get dehydrated while hiking and walking in the desert, so pack along extra water, and be sure to take rest and water breaks on long hikes. There are a number of places to refill your water bottles in Zion National Park including the visitors' center and Zion Lodge as well as a new hydration station at the Springdale bus stop in front of The Bumbleberry Inn and Zion Canyon Brew Pub.

Be cautious near steep cliffs

Falls from cliffs on trails can result in death. Loose sand or pebbles on stone are very slippery. Be careful of edges when using cameras or binoculars. Never throw or roll rocks because there may be hikers below you. Stay on the trail. Stay back from cliff edges. Observe posted warnings. Please watch children.

Watch for flash floods

All narrow canyons are potentially hazardous. Flash floods, often caused by storms miles away, are a real danger and can be life threatening. You are assuming a risk when entering a narrow canyon. Your safety is your responsibility.

Tips To Minimize Your Impact

Pack it in, pack it out & use recycling bins

Each month, Zion National Park pays many thousands of dollars to haul away waste collected from garbage cans and recycling bins. Your experience and that of everyone who visits Zion Canyon can be improved by never littering and making sure you pick up any trash you see along the way. Recycling bins are placed strategically throughout Zion Park, and it is highly encouraged for everyone to use them.

Please stay on the marked trails

Hiking off trails can lead to loss of vegetation, soil compaction, erosion, and unsightly scars on the landscape. Remember, if you bring it in, please pack it out.

Go before you go

It is always a good idea to use the restroom before you begin a hike since facilities are limited to select locations. If you do need to take care of your business, please pack it back out.

Be respectful to the wildlife

Feeding, harming, or capturing wild animals is illegal and can cause injury or death to the animal. Animals can become aggressive beggars when fed.

Please leave it how you found it

It is illegal to remove anything from Zion National Park, including flowers, rocks, or anything else that you might find. Do not write or carve on natural surfaces.

Top Things To Do In Zion

Get some great hiking in

Zion National Park is known for its scenic landscape and unrivaled hikes. No matter your fitness level, there are hikes here for you. Please go to ZionGuide.com to see the details on many area hikes.

Spend a day in Springdale

Springdale is unique to our national park system in that it is almost completely surrounded by Zion National Park. So when you're in Springdale, you're right in the middle of Zion Canyon.

Catch an event

Not only does Zion Brew Pub have live music every Saturday, the property also hosts a handful of events throughout the year, as do the Bit and Spur restaurant, Tanner Amphitheater, Bumbleberry Inn, Wildcat Willies, and several other locations.

Try a guided tour

Jeep, helicopter, ATV, canyoneering, horseback riding, or mountain biking, guided tours are all available. Many of these tours take you outside Zion National Park boundaries and give you a unique perspective on Zion's canyons and plateaus from surrounding areas of southern Utah. Check out ZionGuide.com for listings and ads.

Visit the east side of Zion and spend a day in Kanab

The east side of Zion is generally less crowded, making hikes more accessible and private. These are some of the most enjoyable hikes in the canyon. You can spot wildlife you won't see elsewhere in the canyon. The city of Kanab, situated east of the canyon, is full of unique attractions, like the Little Hollywood Movie Museum and the Best Friends Animal Sanctuary.

Take lots of pictures, leave only footprints

Be sure you've got extra charged batteries, smartphone cables, and memory cards so you can capture all the magic of Zion National Park. Additionally, there are numerous photo tour and guiding companies to assist you. Thank you for visiting the Zion National Park area.

Tips To Maximize Enjoyment

Go on a less crowded hike

The most visited Zion hikes have a lot of competition. If you'd rather not feel like you're in the line at a theme park, consider seeking out a less traveled path. Check out our feature, Less-Traveled Zion Hikes, in this issue.

To avoid the crowds, go early or late in the day

Consider getting up extra early or trekking out midday after the initial rush has flooded in.

Consider coming back again in the low season

Starting in the late fall, the number of visitors to Zion Canyon starts to dwindle, and by December it's significantly less than in the heat of the summer. It is simply a different experience to see Zion in the winter with the snow-capped monoliths. Most hikes are still accessible and are less crowded. You can also drive to the Temple of Sinawava parking lot. The shuttles stop running from November until March.

Check out Kolob Canyons & Kolob Terrace Road

With gorgeous open spaces and plenty of dirt roads to explore, Kolob Terrace Road is one of Zion's best kept secrets. You'll notice the air getting cooler as you gain elevation, and you'll find plenty of beautiful views worth stopping at for a quick photo op. The Kolob Terrace Road turnoff is in Virgin, so watch for signs. Portions of the Kolob Canyon District of Zion National Park are reached via Exit 40 on Interstate 15.

Peregrine Falcon Nesting Season

Climbing routes on cliffs used by nesting raptors are temporarily closed beginning March 1, 2024. These birds are especially sensitive to disturbance while they nest. If disturbed, a nesting pair may abandon their nest site and not return until the following year. The closure date is based on National Park Service monitoring of nesting sites since 2001. Climbers should check the park's Seasonal Climbing Closures webpage for details.

Attend a Zion Canyon Ranger Led Patio Talk

- 1:30 PM
- 3 PM

No matter when you visit, be prepared for crowds and remember:

• Parking fills early year-round. You may have to wait to enter Zion Canyon Scenic Drive if parking is full there.

• Watch out for pedestrians and bicyclists if you are driving.

Don't forget your park pass or receipt in a hotel room or at home.

• Ride your bike on the road or the Pa'Rus Trail. Bicycling is not allowed on any other trails in the park. If you are riding in the road, you must stop to let buses pass you.

• The NPS may temporarily close roads if traffic is congested or there is nowhere for drivers to park.

• In general, fewer people visit Zion on weekdays than weekends. Consider arriving early or after 3 PM to avoid the busiest times of day.

Plan ahead and prepare

If you cannot park in Zion or if all of our campsites are full, research nearby communities and public lands to learn about other recreational activities and lodging. Always recreate responsibly and respect private owners' property and facilities.

Follow Leave No Trace practices everywhere in the park and beyond; be sure to pack out all your trash.

Hiking is popular in Zion National Park, and popular hikes are seeing record visitation at peak days and times. For a less congested trek, consider these less-traveled hikes.

Northgate Peaks

By Don Gilman

The Northgate Peaks trail in the Kolob Terrace section of Zion National Park is an amazing trail with spectacular views. The trail itself is nearly flat, making it a perfect hike for families.

To reach the Northgate Peaks trailhead, take State Route 9 to the town of Virgin. Turn left onto Kolob Terrace Road. Drive for 15.7 miles through increasingly spectacular country until the short spur road (on the right) for the Wildcat Trailhead is reached. Drive a few hundred feet to the large parking area.

The trail heads east across grassy plains and stands of Ponderosa Pine with dynamite views of the towering Pine Valley Peak to the west. Soon the trail will be fully in the forest with limited views. After 0.9 miles, the junction with the Hop Valley trail is reached. Continue east, and 0.1 miles further, the junction with the Northgate Peaks Trail is reached. Head south on this trail for another 1.1 miles until the end of the official trail is reached at a rocky basalt bluff with epic views of the Northgate Peaks to the east and west and of North Guardian Angel to the south.

For families with young children, this makes an excellent turnaround spot.

Gifford Canyon

By Bo Beck

Gifford Canyon offers a nice stroll through a sandy wash and is very charming when water is running. This hike is nearly 3 miles long and will take about 2 hours to finish.

To start this hike, park in the lot located immediately east of the Zion/Mt. Carmel Tunnel. The trail begins at the backside of the restrooms at the back of the parking lot. There will be a steep, sandy path to climb down before you enter Pine Creek slot. Follow the path upstream for almost 75 feet, and look for a 15-foot wall of slickrock. You can scramble up the rock or look for the beaten path on the backside of the rock.

On top of this wall is a narrow dirt path that is crowded by rock and vegetation.

It winds around the mountain to a dead end with a beautiful view of the mountain where the Canyon Overlook Trail is located, opposite is Gifford Canyon.

The path will lead past stone bridge and to another minor slickrock climb. At the end of the canyon, there is a circle of cliffs preventing further exploration without climbing up the sandstone.

Chinle Trail

By Greta Hyland

Chinle Trail is an off-the-beaten-path trail located in the lower elevation west desert wilderness area, offering wide vistas, desert landscapes, and a reprieve from the more touristy trails in the park. Though it's a long trail, it's a mellow hike that can be cut off whenever you feel like turning around. It's a great hike with kids because it's not treacherous, slippery, or steep. Avoid it after snow or rain as it will be muddy.

The Chinle Trailhead starts outside of Zion, south of Springdale. If you are coming from St. George, the turn is about a block before you hit the apple orchard and stand as you leave Rockville off of State Route 9. There is a parking area off the right of Anasazi Way near the Anasazi Plateau housing development. If you hit houses, you missed it. And yes, the trail starts below the housing development and takes you right through it. Don't worry though, it doesn't last long.

Shortly after you get through the housing development, you will hit a sign letting you know you are entering the Zion Wilderness. At this point, you can breathe a sigh of relief, because you have gotten away from civilization to enjoy nature, and chances are that you won't see another soul until you return to your car.

Many Pools

By Candice Reed

The route is moderate with a gentle uphill climb to an alcove, but plan for a strenuous hike if you continue to the East Rim.

The route begins right off the highway. Drive to the pullout near the second drainage on the north side of the State Route 9, about 0.8 miles after the smaller tunnel. Walk carefully along the road about 150 yards and drop down into a sandy bowl on the north side of SR-9. There is a trail for a short distance, and then the sand turns into large flat stones that you can pick and choose to walk on, depending on your sense of balance. A short distance off the road, filled pools carved into the rocks appear. Ponderosa Pines and Juniper trees twisted by the wind are a good backdrop to the reds and whites ribboned through the rocks.

Overlook Trail

By Charlotte Emett

The Overlook Trail is a short, beautiful hike located on the east side of Zion National Park, just outside the Mt. Carmel tunnel. The hike is about one mile roundtrip, and it usually takes people about an hour. It is definitely one of the easier hikes in Zion, but it's still considered a moderate-level hike due to a few exposed areas and sandstone pathways, which can be slippery.

The Overlook trailhead lies right outside of the Mt. Carmel tunnel by the ranger booth. Exit the tunnel too quickly and you'll miss it.

It begins with a staircase carved out of the sandstone leading up and away from the road. Soon, you'll be walking along the side of the mountain and looking down into a thin crevice known as Pine Creek Canyon. At about halfway, you'll walk across a bridge that wraps around a corner and leads to an area of recessed rock wet with the moisture that caused it to erode and be filled with ferns growing out of the sandstone.

The East Rim Trail

By Bo Beck and Tanya Milligan

After positioning a vehicle or making shuttle arrangements at the Weeping Rock parking lot, watch for the small "trailhead" sign along the Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, immediately west of the east entrance booth.

This trail is said to be one of the most scenic in all of Zion National Park and is on many lists as one of the best hikes in Utah. This trek begins on the east side of the park and climbs over 1,400 feet to the rim. This hike begins with a backdoor view of Checkerboard Mesa as it skirts Clear Creek for a short time and steadily and gently climbs through a juniper and pine forest. On top of the mesa, scenery gets interesting as a spectacular view of Echo Canyon takes center stage.

The downhill finish is spectacular, keeping an almost constant view of some of Zion's greatest landmarks, including Angels Landing, Organ, Great White Throne, and in the distance is Cathedral Mountain.

Warning: These hikes are very popular and often overcrowded. If you are feeling up to some of the more difficult hikes, try some of these popular hikes.

Angels Landing via West Rim Trail

Possibly the most popular hike in Zion, Angels Landing takes around four hours to complete, covers just under 5 1/2 miles, and requires a permit to hike. As you work your way up the 1,488-foot change in elevation, you'll want to look out for long drop-offs. This hike is not for young children or people with a fear of heights. Be sure to enjoy, but be careful along the last section of the hike, which is a steep, narrow ridge to the summit. The hike starts at The Grotto.

The Narrows via Riverside Walk

A full-day hike at 8 hours, the Narrows can pose extra dangers depending on the weather. High water levels can prevent access to the Narrows, so be sure to check with the visitor center before beginning this 9 1/2-mile hike. You'll start this hike at Temple of Sinawava.

Kolob Arch via La Verkin Creek Trail

Getting to Kolob Arch via the La Verkin Creek Trail follows Timber and La Verkin creeks and connects to the trail to Kolob Arch, one of the world's largest freestanding arches. A full-day hike, it will take around 8 hours to finish the 14-fourteen mile trip. This hike starts at Kolob Canyons Road.

If you are looking for something more moderate, try some of these mid-range hikes.

Kayenta Trail

This two-hour hike starts at the Grotto and goes for two miles. You'll gain 150 feet in elevation, and the trail does have long drop-offs. This unpaved climb connects the Grotto to the Emerald Pools trails.

Canyon Overlook Trail

Starting at Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, this one-hour hike provides a 163-foot gain in elevation over the course of a mile. This rocky and uneven trail ends at a viewpoint for Pine Creek Canyon and lower Zion Canyon. While this trail is mostly fenced, there are long drop-offs.

Taylor Creek Trail

You'll begin this five-mile hike at Kolob Canyons Road. It should take around 4 hours to complete and provides a 450-foot gain in elevation. Larger groups may need to split up, as this hike limits 12 people to a group. It follows the Middle Fork of Taylor Creek past two homestead cabins to Double Arch Alcove.

Timber Creek Overlook Trail

A quick hike, the Timber Creek Overlook Trail covers just one mile and 100 feet in elevation gain. It can be done in about 30 minutes. The trail follows a ridge to a small peak with views of Timber Creek, Kolob Terrace, and Pine Valley Mountains.

Those looking for something less strenuous should check out these easy hikes.

Pa'rus Trail

Starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this two-hour hike covers 3 1/2 miles and rises 50 feet in elevation. A paved trail that follows the Virgin River from the South Campground to Canyon Junction, Pa'rus Trail is wheelchair accessible and is open to both bicycles and dogs.

Archeology Trail

Also starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this short half-hour hike covers just under half a mile and rises 80 feet in elevation, making it a short but steep trail. This trail offers trailside exhibits and views of several prehistoric buildings.

Grotto Trail

Starting at Zion Lodge or the Grotto, this trail connects the two locations and can be combined with the Middle Emerald Pools and Kayenta trails to create a 2 1/2-mile loop. The non-loop version should take about 30 minutes and rises 35 feet over one mile.

Riverside Walk

Starting at Temple of Sinawava, this 1 1/2-hour hike cover just over two miles and rises 57 feet in elevation. While it is wheelchair accessible, there are minor drop-offs. The trail, which is paved, offers trailside exhibits as it follows the Virgin Rivet along the bottom of a narrow canyon.

Lower Emerald Pool Trail - Temporarily Closed Due To Falling Ice

This paved trail leads to the Lower Emerald Pool and waterfalls. It also connects to the Middle Emerald Pools Trail. It should take about an hour and covers just over one mile with 69 feet in elevation gain.

Southern Utah State & National Parks

ANASAZI STATE PARK MUSEUM - This ancient Indian village in the heart of Utah's canyon country was one of the largest Anasazi communities west of the Colorado River. The site is believed to have been occupied from A.D. 1050 to 1200. The village remains largely unexcavated, but many artifacts have been uncovered and are on display in the newly remodeled museum. Anasazi State Park is in the picturesque town of Boulder on State Route 12. Group and individual picnic areas are available. There is no camping. (435) 335-7308.

BAKER - Baker Reservoir is a small lake on the Santa Clara River four miles north of Veyo on Utah State Route 18. It is a 63-acre lake with an average depth of about 20 feet. Many people come to the reservoir to camp at one of its 10 campsites and to fish. The reservoir is stocked with rainbow trout and contains brown trout, green sunfish, crayfish, redbreast shiner, and mountain sucker. It has picnic areas and vault toilets. There is a fee for visiting the reservoir and no boat ramp.

BRYCE CANYON - Bryce Canyon National Park is a scientist's laboratory and a child's playground. Because Bryce transcends 2,000 feet of elevation, the park exists in three distinct climatic zones: spruce/fir forest, ponderosa pine forest and pinon pine/juniper forest. This diversity of habitat provides for high biodiversity. Here at Bryce, you can enjoy over 100 species of birds, dozens of mammals, and more than a thousand plant species. (435) 834-5322.

CEDAR BREAKS - Sitting at over 10,000 feet and looking down into a half-mile deep geologic amphitheater. Come wander among timeless bristlecone pines, stand in lush meadows of wildflowers, ponder crystal-clear night skies and experience the richness of our subalpine forest. Just four miles off Utah Highway 148, you'll find the Cedar Breaks National Monument parking lot.

CORAL PINK SAND DUNES - At an elevation of 6,000 feet and 12 paved miles off U.S. Highway 89 near Kanab, this park provides a fantastic setting for camping, hiking, OHV riding or just playing in the sand. A 265-acre conservation area prohibits motorized vehicles in order to protect the Coral Pink beetle (found nowhere else in the world) and its habitat. The mule deer, jackrabbit, kit fox, coyote, and many small rodents also make the park their home. (435) 648-2800.

DEAD HORSE POINT - Dead Horse Point State Park is perhaps Utah's most spectacular state park. Dead Horse Point is a promontory of stone surrounded by steep cliffs near Moab. The overlook at Dead Horse Point is 6,000 feet above sea level. Two-thousand feet below, the Colorado River winds its way from the continental divide in Colorado to the Gulf of California, a distance of 1,400 miles. (435) 259-2614.

DINOSAUR TRACKS - The St. George Dinosaur Discovery Site at Johnson Farm is home to exceptionally well-preserved dinosaur tracks, some displaying skin impressions. These tracks, along with hundreds of fossil fish, plants, rare dinosaur remains, invertebrates' traces, and important sedimentary structures, show evidence that this site was produced along the western edge of a large, Early Jurassic (age between 195-198 million years ago) freshwater lake. (435) 574-3466.

ENTERPRISE - There are two reservoirs in the Bull Valley Mountains 10 miles southwest of the town of Enterprise. The main one is Upper Enterprise Reservoir, about 250 acres with an average depth of about 50 feet, while Lower Enterprise Reservoir is 79 acres. Many come to the reservoir to camp, fish hike, and boat. The Honeycomb Campground is situated between both lakes and has 21 campsites and flush toilets. There is a boat ramp on Upper Enterprise Reservoir and several fishing areas around both reservoirs. Fishermen will find rainbow trout and smallmouth bass here. Fees are charged.

FOUR CORNERS - The Four Corners is the only place in the U.S. where four states come together at one place: Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Colorado. Here, a person can put each of their hands and feet in four states at the same time. The unique landmark is on Navajo Nation land and is open for visits from the public. West of U.S. Highway 160, 40 miles southwest of Cortez, Colo. (928) 871-6436.

GRAND CANYON - A World Heritage Site encompassing 1,218,375 acres on the Colorado Plateau in northwestern Arizona. The land is semi-arid and consists of raised plateaus and structural basins typical of the southwestern United States. (928) 638-7888.

GRAND STAIRCASE-ESCALANTE NATIONAL MONUMENT - Nearly 1.9 million acres of America's public lands and located between Bryce Canyon and Glen Canyon Recreational Areas. From its namesake Grand Staircase of cliffs and terraces across the rugged Kaiparowits Plateau to the beauty of the Escalante River Canyons, the Monument's size, resources, and isolated location provide amazing opportunities.

GUNLOCK - In scenic red rock country, 15 miles northwest of St. George, lies the 240-acre Gunlock State Park and Reservoir where year-round boating, water sports, and quality fishing for bass and catfish attract visitors. Facilities include boat launching ramp and pit privies. (435) 628-2255.

LAKE MEAD - Lake Mead National Recreation Area offers a wealth of things to do and places to go year-round. Its huge lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, sunbathers and fishermen, while its desert rewards hikers, wildlife photographers, and roadside sightseers. It is also home to thousands of desert plants and animals adapted to survive in an extreme place where rain is scarce and temperatures soar. (702) 293-8990.

LAKE POWELL - In Glen Canyon National Recreation Area is one of the world's great places for houseboating! The 186-mile-long lake offers sandy beaches, cool blue water, and exceptional red-rock scenery. It is excellent for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing. Boat or hike to Rainbow Bridge, or explore any of its many canyons or sand dunes. (928) 608-6200.

PINE VALLEY - Pine Valley Reservoir is a beautiful place for fishermen to fish brook trout and rainbow trout. The reservoir is near the Pine Valley Recreation Complex, which has over 150 campsites with picnic and restroom facilities. This area is greener than most other parts of southwestern Utah with pine and pinon trees, and many come to enjoy camping and hiking. It is west of the town of Central. (435) 652-3100.

QUAIL LAKE - Quail Creek State Park provides excellent year-round camping, picnicking, boating, and trout and bass fishing in sunny southwest Utah. The park is three miles east of the Interstate 15 Hurricane exit on Utah State Route 9. Facilities include 23 campsites, modern restrooms, a fish cleaning station, and two covered group-use pavilions. (435) 879-2378.

SAND HOLLOW - Looking to fish? Swim? Ride your ATV in the sand? Do all that and more at Sand Hollow State Park, located between St. George and Hurricane. Bring your boat, a picnic, and some fishing gear for a fun day on the reservoir, or watch the kids swim while you relax on the beach. Load up your RV or tent and settle in for a nice campout, or ride your ATV in the dunes of Sand Mountain. (435) 680-0715.

SNOW CANYON - Named after early Utah leaders Lorenzo and Erastus Snow, Snow Canyon State Park begins just outside of Ivins and stretches northward. Spectacular scenery includes towering red and white sandstone cliffs, black lava formations, and even a waterfall that appears during heavy rain. Snow Canyon offers 16 miles of hiking trails, beautiful sand dunes, technical rock climbing sites, horseback riding, year-round camping, nature studies, and wildlife viewing. This park is a favorite for locals and visitors alike. (435) 628-2255.

ZION - With breathtaking views, numerous hiking attractions of all difficulty levels and some of the most spectacular scenery on earth, Zion National Park and its surrounding areas attract thousands of visitors every year. This natural wonder is not only a mecca of recreational activity, but Zion and nearby Springdale host numerous cultural activities, as well. There's something for everyone in Zion - whether you're looking for a challenging hike or a fun excursion for the family. (435) 772-3256.
